Date: _____

By authority of the Nuremberg Code on Medical Experimentation, and the determination that the principle of voluntary informed consent protects the right of the individual to control his own body, which includes the right of the individual to refuse medical treatment. The United States Government has extraterritorially prosecuted, convicted and executed Medical Doctors and Nurses who have violated the Nuremberg Code on Medical Experimentation. Aiders and abettors of Nuremberg Crimes are equally guilty and have also been prosecuted, convicted, and executed.

Every court of law in any location has original jurisdiction (Universal) to hear and try Crimes Against Humanity; and violations of the Nuremberg Code are classified as Crimes Against Humanity, which carry a maximum penalty of Death.

Keeping a patient against their will is False Imprisonment. In addition, these actions represent medical kidnapping. Experimenting on patients without informed consent is a medical battery, and aggravated assault. Experimenting on patients in while those patients are isolated/secluded and/or restrained by either mechanical (e.g. oxygen) or chemical (e.g. mind altering medications) means may create additional legal exposure:
